

The Home Journal.

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY EVENING AT TWO DOLLARS PER ANNUM.

AGENTS FOR THE JOURNAL.
S. M. PITT, TINGL & CO., New York.
J. H. BENNETT, Winchester.
W. E. PURVIS, McMinnville.
L. CUMMING, Pulaski.
JOHN E. RHODES, Shelbyville.
C. A. HUNT, Salem.
A. L. GILLISBURGE, Fayetteville.

Subscriptions for a shorter time than one year must be paid in advance.

For every club subscription less than the regular price ($2) will be received. However, when a club of five subscribers is sent us, we will allow an extra copy gratis to the get-up of the club.

Single copies sold at 10 cents.

When credit for the paper is given to the end of the year three dollars will be invariably charged.

An exchange says "there are always to be found in every community persons whose sole business seems to be to tell what somebody said about somebody. If a gentleman bows to a lady on the street, that certainly means something; if the escorts her to or from an evening party they are surely engaged and the day of their nuptials appointed. If you don't do for your just dues and tell him you need the money, the news-mongers circulate the report that you are on the eve of bursting up." Such persons keep neighborhoods in broils, making strifes in families, and open fresh many a wound that would have healed if left to itself. The safest way and the best way is for every person to attend to his or her own business, provided he or she is so fortunate as to have any. A deal of mischief can be prevented by this course, and those who will adopt it will be made happier."

At a meeting of Stockholders of the Nashville and Chattanooga Railroad, held at Murfreesboro on the 15th inst., the old Board of Directors, with one or two exceptions, were re-elected as follows: V. K. Stevenson, J. A. Whitesides, S. D. Morgan, E. H. Ewing, John M. Bass, F. B. Foggs, Lewis Garner, Hugh Francis, John M. Lee, A. M. Rutledge, Thos. Powers, J. B. Knowles, A. L. Landis, Thos. C. Whitesides, and E. A. Keeble.

Six members of the old Board having taken a position in opposition to the President, after the election resigned. The six members of the Board who resigned are Messrs. Sam. D. Morgan, John M. Lee, E. H. Ewing, A. M. Rutledge, F. B. Foggs, and J. B. Knowles.—Nashville Banner.

We believe that we have published the following remedy, for hog cholera in the Journal before, but fear it escaped the attention of our readers, and knowing that terrible disease to be prevalent, among the swine in our county, we again publish it.

Infallible Cure for Hog Cholera.—One of the most intelligent and reliable farmers in this country, says the Holly Springs (Miss.) Democrat, tells us of a remedy for hog cholera, which he says we may give to our readers as infallible.

This remedy is simple arsenic, in the proportion of a common tea-spoonful to twenty hogs, mixed with a little dough and given to them.—He says that after trying every remedy of which he could hear, and losing 200 hogs, he happened to think of this, and tried it with complete success, never losing another hog after commencing to use it; although he had a good many very bad off when he began to use it. It is easily tried, and we recommend it to our readers.

THE VALUE OF HOOPS.
Truth Stranger Than Fiction.—A great commotion was created in our town last Saturday by a report that Dr. R. C. Land had escaped the county jail, by donning the apparel of his wife. At first but few believed the tale. All had read of such escapes, but few were prepared to hear an instance of its reality. But nevertheless it was true. Mrs. Land had called and remained with Dr. Land for several hours that evening, as she had frequently done before. About supper time she was let out (as it was supposed) as usual, and the mistake was not discovered until it was too late. His Honor, Judge Henry, on being informed of Dr. Land's escape, declared that his lady should remain in prison unless he was returned, but we are glad that the severe rigor of justice gave way to the dictates of humanity, and she was released. We do not know to what extent Mrs. Land would be culpable in the eyes of law, but we do know that the self-sacrificing devotion of a wife, as exemplified in the present instance, is but one of those pure, ennobling traits which so adorn the female character.—Lexington Ad.

To the Point.—If any of our readers should have occasion to pass through Mr. Lornigan's field out in Illinois, they will please observe the following which he prints in a local paper:

FAIR WARNING TO ALL.—May I be asssuredly d—d I don't put a ball through the heart of the first man that passes through my field without putting up my fence good, so help me God.

L. H. JERNIGAN.

Hon. West H. Humphreys, of this vicinity, was elected an active member of the Historical Society at their adjourned meeting Tuesday last. A. S. Colyar, Esq., of Winchester, was elected a corresponding member.—Nashville Gazette.

A sermon in four words on the vanity of earthly possessions: "Strouds bags no pockets."

Subscriptions for a shorter time than one year must be paid in advance.

For every club subscription less than the regular price ($2) will be received. However, when a club of five subscribers is sent us, we will allow an extra copy gratis to the get-up of the club.

Single copies sold at 10 cents.

When credit for the paper is given to the end of the year three dollars will be invariably charged.

An exchange says "there are always to be found in every community persons whose sole business seems to be to tell what somebody said about somebody. If a gentleman bows to a lady on the street, that certainly means something; if the escorts her to or from an evening party they are surely engaged and the day of their nuptials appointed. If you don't do for your just dues and tell him you need the money, the news-mongers circulate the report that you are on the eve of bursting up." Such persons keep neighborhoods in broils, making strifes in families, and open fresh many a wound that would have healed if left to itself. The safest way and the best way is for every person to attend to his or her own business, provided he or she is so fortunate as to have any. A deal of mischief can be prevented by this course, and those who will adopt it will be made happier."

At a meeting of Stockholders of the Nashville and Chattanooga Railroad, held at Murfreesboro on the 15th inst., the old Board of Directors, with one or two exceptions, were re-elected as follows: V. K. Stevenson, J. A. Whitesides, S. D. Morgan, E. H. Ewing, John M. Bass, F. B. Foggs, Lewis Garner, Hugh Francis, John M. Lee, A. M. Rutledge, Thos. Powers, J. B. Knowles, A. L. Landis, Thos. C. Whitesides, and E. A. Keeble.

Six members of the old Board having taken a position in opposition to the President, after the election resigned. The six members of the Board who resigned are Messrs. Sam. D. Morgan, John M. Lee, E. H. Ewing, A. M. Rutledge, F. B. Foggs, and J. B. Knowles.—Nashville Banner.

We believe that we have published the following remedy, for hog cholera in the Journal before, but fear it escaped the attention of our readers, and knowing that terrible disease to be prevalent, among the swine in our county, we again publish it.

Infallible Cure for Hog Cholera.—One of the most intelligent and reliable farmers in this country, says the Holly Springs (Miss.) Democrat, tells us of a remedy for hog cholera, which he says we may give to our readers as infallible.

This remedy is simple arsenic, in the proportion of a common tea-spoonful to twenty hogs, mixed with a little dough and given to them.—He says that after trying every remedy of which he could hear, and losing 200 hogs, he happened to think of this, and tried it with complete success, never losing another hog after commencing to use it; although he had a good many very bad off when he began to use it. It is easily tried, and we recommend it to our readers.

THE VALUE OF HOOPS.
Truth Stranger Than Fiction.—A great commotion was created in our town last Saturday by a report that Dr. R. C. Land had escaped the county jail, by donning the apparel of his wife. At first but few believed the tale. All had read of such escapes, but few were prepared to hear an instance of its reality. But nevertheless it was true. Mrs. Land had called and remained with Dr. Land for several hours that evening, as she had frequently done before. About supper time she was let out (as it was supposed) as usual, and the mistake was not discovered until it was too late. His Honor, Judge Henry, on being informed of Dr. Land's escape, declared that his lady should remain in prison unless he was returned, but we are glad that the severe rigor of justice gave way to the dictates of humanity, and she was released. We do not know to what extent Mrs. Land would be culpable in the eyes of law, but we do know that the self-sacrificing devotion of a wife, as exemplified in the present instance, is but one of those pure, ennobling traits which so adorn the female character.—Lexington Ad.

L. H. JERNIGAN.

Hon. West H. Humphreys, of this vicinity, was elected an active member of the Historical Society at their adjourned meeting Tuesday last. A. S. Colyar, Esq., of Winchester, was elected a corresponding member.—Nashville Gazette.

A sermon in four words on the vanity of earthly possessions: "Strouds bags no pockets."

Subscriptions for a shorter time than one year must be paid in advance.

For every club subscription less than the regular price ($2) will be received. However, when a club of five subscribers is sent us, we will allow an extra copy gratis to the get-up of the club.

Single copies sold at 10 cents.

When credit for the paper is given to the end of the year three dollars will be invariably charged.

An exchange says "there are always to be found in every community persons whose sole business seems to be to tell what somebody said about somebody. If a gentleman bows to a lady on the street, that certainly means something; if the escorts her to or from an evening party they are surely engaged and the day of their nuptials appointed. If you don't do for your just dues and tell him you need the money, the news-mongers circulate the report that you are on the eve of bursting up." Such persons keep neighborhoods in broils, making strifes in families, and open fresh many a wound that would have healed if left to itself. The safest way and the best way is for every person to attend to his or her own business, provided he or she is so fortunate as to have any. A deal of mischief can be prevented by this course, and those who will adopt it will be made happier."

At a meeting of Stockholders of the Nashville and Chattanooga Railroad, held at Murfreesboro on the 15th inst., the old Board of Directors, with one or two exceptions, were re-elected as follows: V. K. Stevenson, J. A. Whitesides, S. D. Morgan, E. H. Ewing, John M. Bass, F. B. Foggs, Lewis Garner, Hugh Francis, John M. Lee, A. M. Rutledge, Thos. Powers, J. B. Knowles, A. L. Landis, Thos. C. Whitesides, and E. A. Keeble.

Six members of the old Board having taken a position in opposition to the President, after the election resigned. The six members of the Board who resigned are Messrs. Sam. D. Morgan, John M. Lee, E. H. Ewing, A. M. Rutledge, F. B. Foggs, and J. B. Knowles.—Nashville Banner.

We believe that we have published the following remedy, for hog cholera in the Journal before, but fear it escaped the attention of our readers, and knowing that terrible disease to be prevalent, among the swine in our county, we again publish it.

Infallible Cure for Hog Cholera.—One of the most intelligent and reliable farmers in this country, says the Holly Springs (Miss.) Democrat, tells us of a remedy for hog cholera, which he says we may give to our readers as infallible.

This remedy is simple arsenic, in the proportion of a common tea-spoonful to twenty hogs, mixed with a little dough and given to them.—He says that after trying every remedy of which he could hear, and losing 200 hogs, he happened to think of this, and tried it with complete success, never losing another hog after commencing to use it; although he had a good many very bad off when he began to use it. It is easily tried, and we recommend it to our readers.

THE VALUE OF HOOPS.
Truth Stranger Than Fiction.—A great commotion was created in our town last Saturday by a report that Dr. R. C. Land had escaped the county jail, by donning the apparel of his wife. At first but few believed the tale. All had read of such escapes, but few were prepared to hear an instance of its reality. But nevertheless it was true. Mrs. Land had called and remained with Dr. Land for several hours that evening, as she had frequently done before. About supper time she was let out (as it was supposed) as usual, and the mistake was not discovered until it was too late. His Honor, Judge Henry, on being informed of Dr. Land's escape, declared that his lady should remain in prison unless he was returned, but we are glad that the severe rigor of justice gave way to the dictates of humanity, and she was released. We do not know to what extent Mrs. Land would be culpable in the eyes of law, but we do know that the self-sacrificing devotion of a wife, as exemplified in the present instance, is but one of those pure, ennobling traits which so adorn the female character.—Lexington Ad.

L. H. JERNIGAN.

Hon. West H. Humphreys, of this vicinity, was elected an active member of the Historical Society at their adjourned meeting Tuesday last. A. S. Colyar, Esq., of Winchester, was elected a corresponding member.—Nashville Gazette.

A sermon in four words on the vanity of earthly possessions: "Strouds bags no pockets."

Subscriptions for a shorter time than one year must be paid in advance.

For every club subscription less than the regular price ($2) will be received. However, when a club of five subscribers is sent us, we will allow an extra copy gratis to the get-up of the club.

Single copies sold at 10 cents.

When credit for the paper is given to the end of the year three dollars will be invariably charged.

An exchange says "there are always to be found in every community persons whose sole business seems to be to tell what somebody said about somebody. If a gentleman bows to a lady on the street, that certainly means something; if the escorts her to or from an evening party they are surely engaged and the day of their nuptials appointed. If you don't do for your just dues and tell him you need the money, the news-mongers circulate the report that you are on the eve of bursting up." Such persons keep neighborhoods in broils, making strifes in families, and open fresh many a wound that would have healed if left to itself. The safest way and the best way is for every person to attend to his or her own business, provided he or she is so fortunate as to have any. A deal of mischief can be prevented by this course, and those who will adopt it will be made happier."

At a meeting of Stockholders of the Nashville and Chattanooga Railroad, held at Murfreesboro on the 15th inst., the old Board of Directors, with one or two exceptions, were re-elected as follows: V. K. Stevenson, J. A. Whitesides, S. D. Morgan, E. H. Ewing, John M. Bass, F. B. Foggs, Lewis Garner, Hugh Francis, John M. Lee, A. M. Rutledge, Thos. Powers, J. B. Knowles, A. L. Landis, Thos. C. Whitesides, and E. A. Keeble.

Six members of the old Board having taken a position in opposition to the President, after the election resigned. The six members of the Board who resigned are Messrs. Sam. D. Morgan, John M. Lee, E. H. Ewing, A. M. Rutledge, F. B. Foggs, and J. B. Knowles.—Nashville Banner.

We believe that we have published the following remedy, for hog cholera in the Journal before, but fear it escaped the attention of our readers, and knowing that terrible disease to be prevalent, among the swine in our county, we again publish it.

Infallible Cure for Hog Cholera.—One of the most intelligent and reliable farmers in this country, says the Holly Springs (Miss.) Democrat, tells us of a remedy for hog cholera, which he says we may give to our readers as infallible.

This remedy is simple arsenic, in the proportion of a common tea-spoonful to twenty hogs, mixed with a little dough and given to them.—He says that after trying every remedy of which he could hear, and losing 200 hogs, he happened to think of this, and tried it with complete success, never losing another hog after commencing to use it; although he had a good many very bad off when he began to use it. It is easily tried, and we recommend it to our readers.

THE VALUE OF HOOPS.
Truth Stranger Than Fiction.—A great commotion was created in our town last Saturday by a report that Dr. R. C. Land had escaped the county jail, by donning the apparel of his wife. At first but few believed the tale. All had read of such escapes, but few were prepared to hear an instance of its reality. But nevertheless it was true. Mrs. Land had called and remained with Dr. Land for several hours that evening, as she had frequently done before. About supper time she was let out (as it was supposed) as usual, and the mistake was not discovered until it was too late. His Honor, Judge Henry, on being informed of Dr. Land's escape, declared that his lady should remain in prison unless he was returned, but we are glad that the severe rigor of justice gave way to the dictates of humanity, and she was released. We do not know to what extent Mrs. Land would be culpable in the eyes of law, but we do know that the self-sacrificing devotion of a wife, as exemplified in the present instance, is but one of those pure, ennobling traits which so adorn the female character.—Lexington Ad.

L. H. JERNIGAN.

Hon. West H. Humphreys, of this vicinity, was elected an active member of the Historical Society at their adjourned meeting Tuesday last. A. S. Colyar, Esq., of Winchester, was elected a corresponding member.—Nashville Gazette.

A sermon in four words on the vanity of earthly possessions: "Strouds bags no pockets."

Subscriptions for a shorter time than one year must be paid in advance.

For every club subscription less than the regular price ($2) will be received. However, when a club of five subscribers is sent us, we will allow an extra copy gratis to the get-up of the club.

Single copies sold at 10 cents.

When credit for the paper is given to the end of the year three dollars will be invariably charged.

An exchange says "there are always to be found in every community persons whose sole business seems to be to tell what somebody said about somebody. If a gentleman bows to a lady on the street, that certainly means something; if the escorts her to or from an evening party they are surely engaged and the day of their nuptials appointed. If you don't do for your just dues and tell him you need the money, the news-mongers circulate the report that you are on the eve of bursting up." Such persons keep neighborhoods in broils, making strifes in families, and open fresh many a wound that would have healed if left to itself. The safest way and the best way is for every person to attend to his or her own business, provided he or she is so fortunate as to have any. A deal of mischief can be prevented by this course, and those who will adopt it will be made happier."

At a meeting of Stockholders of the Nashville and Chattanooga Railroad, held at Murfreesboro on the 15th inst., the old Board of Directors, with one or two exceptions, were re-elected as follows: V. K. Stevenson, J. A. Whitesides, S. D. Morgan, E. H. Ewing, John M. Bass, F. B. Foggs, Lewis Garner, Hugh Francis, John M. Lee, A. M. Rutledge, Thos. Powers, J. B. Knowles, A. L. Landis, Thos. C. Whitesides, and E. A. Keeble.

Six members of the old Board having taken a position in opposition to the President, after the election resigned. The six members of the Board who resigned are Messrs. Sam. D. Morgan, John M. Lee, E. H. Ewing, A. M. Rutledge, F. B. Foggs, and J. B. Knowles.—Nashville Banner.

We believe that we have published the following remedy, for hog cholera in the Journal before, but fear it escaped the attention of our readers, and knowing that terrible disease to be prevalent, among the swine in our county, we again publish it.

Infallible Cure for Hog Cholera.—One of the most intelligent and reliable farmers in this country, says the Holly Springs (Miss.) Democrat, tells us of a remedy for hog cholera, which he says we may give to our readers as infallible.

This remedy is simple arsenic, in the proportion of a common tea-spoonful to twenty hogs, mixed with a little dough and given to them.—He says that after trying every remedy of which he could hear, and losing 200 hogs, he happened to think of this, and tried it with complete success, never losing another hog after commencing to use it; although he had a good many very bad off when he began to use it. It is easily tried, and we recommend it to our readers.

THE VALUE OF HOOPS.
Truth Stranger Than Fiction.—A great commotion was created in our town last Saturday by a report that Dr. R. C. Land had escaped the county jail, by donning the apparel of his wife. At first but few believed the tale. All had read of such escapes, but few were prepared to hear an instance of its reality. But nevertheless it was true. Mrs. Land had called and remained with Dr. Land for several hours that evening, as she had frequently done before. About supper time she was let out (as it was supposed) as usual, and the mistake was not discovered until it was too late. His Honor, Judge Henry, on being informed of Dr. Land's escape, declared that his lady should remain in prison unless he was returned, but we are glad that the severe rigor of justice gave way to the dictates of humanity, and she was released. We do not know to what extent Mrs. Land would be culpable in the eyes of law, but we do know that the self-sacrific